

Lasers in Otorhinolaryngology

Huettenbrink, K. B.

Professor and Head, Dept. of Otorhinolaryngology, University Hospital Cologne, Cologne, Germany

This work represents a state-of-the-art update on the use of lasers in otology; rhinology; diseases of the oral cavity and oropharynx; for benign lesions of the larynx, hypopharynx and trachea; for malignant lesions of the aerodigestive tract; and in dermatology (including interstitial therapy). The book is rounded off by an excellent chapter on lasers in ear and hearing research. It will serve as the perfect introduction to this indispensable surgical tool.

Mabry, R. L.

Clinical Professor of Otorhinolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery at University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center, Dallas, TX, USA

This book reviews the well-established methodologies of intradermal dilutional testing (IDT) and prick testing. It describes the indications and techniques for blending these approaches through modified quantitative testing (MQT). Each method is presented in a concise way, guiding readers from preparation, to application of controls, to application of antigen, and to titration.
