A

air–bone gap closure 115, 116
atretic ear surgery 148
FTT 118, 120
incus
interposition 116, 117
replacement with stapedotomy 274
incus-stapedotomy 286
malleo-stapedotomy 117, 284, 286, 352, 367
mastoido-epitympanectomy 341
neomalleus with stapedotomy 121, 122
Spandrel II 118, 119, 121, 122
stapedotomy 278, 279–280
stapedotomy 278, 279–280
with incus replacement 274 neomalleus with 121, 122
revision 360
total with Spandrel or FTT 274
tympanoplasty type III 122, 123 anesthesia see general anesthesia; lace anesthesia annular ligament 281 antibiotics postoperative 4
preoperative 3
transcanal approach 15
antrostomy, middle ear transducer device 218 antrotomy 47
cholesteatoma removal 177
surgical steps 37–38
surgical technique 37
with temporary transmastoid drain 32 antrum 37–38
mastoidectomy 161
size 301
transmastoid drainage 38
attic see epitympanum (attic) atticotomy see antrotomy; epitympanotomy audiometry
Fisch titanium total prosthesis 318, 319
malleo-stapedotomy 367
ossiculoplasty 318, 319, 321
revision stapedotomy 360–361 aural atresia, congenital 139–148, 149 anatomy 139, 140
approach 139
bilateral 139, 218, 220
bone-anchored hearing aid 218, 220
definition 139
HRCT 330–331, 370
indications for surgery 139 surgery 140, 141–147, 148, 149 combination with plastic reconstruction of external canal 146, 146–147
results 148
unilateral 139
auricle, plastic reconstruction for malformation 139 auriculotemporal nerve, auricular branch block 5 barotrauma, incus movements 223 bipolar forceps 236, 237 bone destruction, HRCT 309, 310, 334, 335–342 bone anchored hearing aid (BAHA) 215–216 genital aural atresia 330
implantation 215–216, 220
instrumentation 220
results 218
burrs 377–378
caliper rod 255
canal wall
conchal cartilage for posterior wall reconstruction 169 intact in tympanomastoidectomy 156 posterosuperior reconstruction 107–108, 108–111, 113 reinforcement 124
re-epithelization of anterior 114 temporary resection 158 canal wall down 152, 157
canalplasty 46
anteroinferior 172
anterosuperior 227, 229, 239
ceruminal impaction and otosclerosis 329
endaural approach 282, 284
malleo-stapedotomy 282
otosclerosis 366
atretic ear 142, 147
cholesteatoma removal 176, 182, 203
closed mastoido-epitympanectomy with tympanoplasty 160
definition 2, 8
for exostosis 132, 132–136
endaural 325
extended 182
incus-stapedotomy 227, 228–229
inferior trough technique 24–25 insufficient 43
malleo-stapedotomy 239
meatal skin flap 17
with meatoctomy 39, 42, 45
otitis externa obliterans 136, 136–138, 326
retroauricular approach 10, 17, 24, 24–25, 40
stapes surgery 289
tympanic sulcus 29
carotid artery, dehiscent 342
cartilage disk
Fisch titanium total prosthesis 125, 320, 321
harvesting/preparation for FTT 83 cerebrospinal fluid leaks 214, 217 intraoperative and cochlear implants 347 cerumen retention 132
ceruminal impaction
HRCT 327–328, 329
stapes surgery complication 364 chair, surgeon’s 378
children
bone anchored hearing aid 216, 218, 220
cholesteatoma 152, 153
postoperative cavity problems 201
surgical results 200
cochlear implant 213
congenital aural atresia surgery 139 open cavity postoperative care 219 pneumococcal vaccination 213
cholesteatoma 124, 152–204
acquired 152–154, 155, 203
diagnosis 369
otositis media with marginal perforation 334
surgical treatment 156–159
anterior tympanomeatal 43 drainage of ears 214
classification 152–154, 155 closed cavity 159, 200, 203
closed tympanomastoidectomy 156 congenital 152
conservative treatment 333–334 detachment from supratubal 180 fistula test 2
HRCT 310
iatalogenic 154
immigration theory 153, 154 inclusion 44
invasion
intratympanic extent 177 routes 155
mastoido-epitympanectomy 152, 310
matrix destruction of bone 338 matrix removal from round window 184–185 from suprastapedial 337, 339, 340
open cavity 159, 200, 203
correct exteriorization 190 inadequate exteriorization 201, 202
meatoplasty 196, 196–198
packing 191, 192
re-epithelialization 204
revision surgery 201, 202
open mastoido-epitympanectomy 157
ossiculoplasty 310
preoperative scan 313
otositis media with marginal perforation 332–342, 369
overlay grafting 188, 188–189
pathogenesis 153–154
pearls 44
perilymph fistula 337, 338, 339
postoperative cavity problems 201
primary acquired 152–154, 155 recurrent 154, 200, 335
removal from oval window 167, 184–185 wound closure/packing 199
residual 144, 154, 200 retention 154, 206, 219 sac opening 164, 203 secondary acquired 152, 154, 155 size reduction 164
surgical approach choice 159
surgical results 200–202, 203–204
surgical techniques 160–204
surgical treatment 333–334
cholesterol granuloma 308, 311 chorda tympani
atretic ear surgery 142
incus-stapedotomy 229, 230
mobilization 230
preservation 124
separation from malleus neck 243
titanium incus 54
chorda–tensor fold 124
normal ears 102
removal 102, 103, 166, 168
cochlea endosteum 266
obliteration 214
ossification 370
otosclerosis 350–351, 352, 353
round window occlusion 353
otospongiosis 350–351
stimulation 282
cochlear implant 207, 207–214, 219
antibiotic prophylaxis 213 chronic otitis media 347 electrode
array and receiver/stimulator package 212, 219 cables 344
fixation 210
introduction in scala tympani 211 placement 346, 370
external speech processor 209
HRCT 342, 343–348, 370
introduction 210
meningitis 217
receiver implantation 346 receiver/stimulator package bed 209
fixation 212, 219
implantation 217
results 217
round window niche exposure 213 subtotal petrosectomy 214, 219, 345, 346–348 temporal bone malformations 344–345 testing by audio engineer 213 wound closure 212–213
cochlear nerve aplasia 370
cochlear turns 266
cochleariform process 104, 264, 266
HRCT 326
identification 265
cochleostomy 211, 219
anterior promontorial 260, 262 cochlear implant and subtotal petrosectomy 214 directly guided 266
indirectly guided 264, 265 computed tomography, high-resolution (HRCT) 292 bone destruction 309, 310, 334, 335–342 cartilaginous external auditory canal 369 clinical importance 368
cochlear implant 342, 343–348, 370 congenital aural atresia 330–331, 370 conventional 293–297, 298, 298 coronal 305, 306–307
exostosis 325
eexternal otitis 327–328
with otosclerosis 328
Fisch titanium total prosthesis 298–299, 318–320, 369
incus-stapedotomy 349, 349–367, 370
labyrinthine fistula 369
mallo–stapedotomy 349, 349–367, 370
mastoidectomy 332–348
open cavity 332–342
special applications 342, 343–348
mastoido-epitympanectomy with partial obliteration 332–342

aus: Fisch u. a., Tympanoplasty, Mastoidectomy, and Stapes Surgery (ISBN 9783131377029)
© 2008 Georg Thieme Verlag KG
atretic ear
formation of new 142 plastic reconstruction 146, 146–147 bony canal enlargement 39, 41 cartilaginous 357
HRCT 369
ceruminal impaction 327–328
stapes surgery complication 364 closure for cochlear implant 346 debridement after surgery 149 enlargement 366
exostosis removal 132, 132–136
exposure
cholesteatoma removal 173–174
retroauricular approach 17–18
gauze application 4
preoperative 3
HRCT 325–331
lateral stenosis 46
lumen obliteration 136
meatoplasty 39
narrow 327
obliteration 136, 136–138
otitis externa stenosans 326 posterior wall electrode notch 130 restenosis prevention/risk 149 skin grafting 138, 147
widening 135
incus-stapedotomy 225

F
facial nerve anomalous 260–262
dehiscence 203, 257, 258, 259, 312
cholesteatoma 333, 334
otosclerosis 353, 358
stapedial otosclerosis 358
tympanic segment 352, 359 displacement 260–262
function 139
geniculomastoidectomy 171
HRCT 301, 302, 303, 304, 308, 309
identification in atretic ear 143
labyrinthine 168, 171
mastoid segment 179, 218 pneumatic cell removal 341 pneumatic cells 301
skeletonization 209
monitoring 6, 7, 139, 142, 149
cholesteatoma removal 203
cochlear implant 209
epitympanectomy 165, 166
mastoidectomy 178, 179
pyramidal section 209
stapes prosthesis contact 259 combined fascial underlay 187 combined grafting 186
dehiscence 352, 359
exposure 179
weakness 5
facial palsy, local anesthesia 4 facial ridge lowering 172, 179, 336 fallopian canal
identification in atretic ear 143
widening 135
ear: Fisch u. a., Tympanoplasty, Mastoidectomy, and Stapes Surgery (ISBN 9783131377029) © 2008 Georg Thieme Verlag KG
anterosuperior 227
ceruminal impaction and otosclerosis 329
footplate perforation 231–232 hemostasis 237
HRCT 349, 349–367, 370
otosclerosis 352–353
prosthesis
fixation 233
introduction 232–233
length changes 235
length determination 230
storage 231
trimming 230–231
results 281–282
sealing of opening 236
surgical steps 225–237
titanium stapes prosthesis 230–231, 281, 353, 354, 354–361
transmeatal 364–367
tympanomeatal flap repositioning 236–237 wound closure/packing 237

M
magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) 370 malleable measuring rod 63, 67 malleolar ligament, anterior 238 calcification 366
hyalinization 284
ossified 243
mallear process, anterior 243
fixation 326
malleolar fold, superior 103
malleo-stapedotomy 222, 238, 238–247
air–bone gap closure 117, 284, 286
anomalous facial nerve 261
audiometry 367
frenestrated ear 273
fixed footplate and malleus, closed cavity 69 functional repair of malleus/incus fixation 289 hearing levels 284, 286
HRCT 349, 349–367, 370
incus erosion 270
indirectly-guided cochloestomy 265
malleus handle 125
mobile footplate and malleus 55, 56–57 in trauma 118
otosclerosis 284, 351–352, 367
oval window obstruction 259
prosthesis
attachment 125
length determination 243, 244
results 116–118, 282, 284
revision stapedotomy 357
stapes fixation 284
surgical steps 239–247
surgical technique 55, 238
titanium stapes prosthesis 244, 354, 354–361, 363–364
tympanosclerosis 276
malleus
atretic ear 142
debridement of tip 29
distance to footplate 56
fixation 233, 238
anterior malleolar ligament calcification 366 hearing loss 284
otosclerosis 282
previously undetected 271
removal 328
graft placement 46–47 lateral process 228, 229 malform ed 139, 142, 149 mobility 233, 234, 235, 238, 239, 271 assessment 240
evaluation 282
overlaid fascia anchoring at tip 36 short process exposure 227, 229 stabilization in atretic ear 142 see also neomalleus with stapedotomy (NMS)
malleus handle
distance from stapes head 51, 52
exposure 56, 241
footplate distance 67
loop adaptation to malleus handle size 245
malleo-stapedotomy 125
mobility 243
movement 57
reconstruction 168
Spandrel head rotation 64
titanium incus 54
titanium stapes prosthesis adaptation to positions 246–247 crimping 57, 247
loop adaptation 245
shaping 244
malleus head
incus interposition 49
position 357
removal 166, 171, 242–243
epitympanectomy 102, 103, 103–104
malleus nipper 242, 243
mastoid
exposure
cholesteatoma removal 173
retroauricular approach 18
insufficient bone removal 339 obliterated 205, 206, 217 open cavity reconstruction 206
open cavity
correct exteriorization 190
meatoplasty 196, 196–198
packing 191, 192
mastoid bone removal 339
open 157
bone work checklist 172
with staged ossiculoplasty 314 open with tympanoplasty 170, 170–185, 186–189, 217
bone work checklist 219
open cavity reconstruction 206
with ossiculoplasty 332
staged 314
with partial obliteration (METO) 332, 332–342, 342 reduced pneumatization 310, 332
revision 337–342
follow-up 341–342
skeletonization 334
with tympanoplasty
closed 160, 160–169
open 170, 170–185, 186–189, 206, 217, 219
radical 200
tympanosclerosis 274
meatal skin, poorly pneumatized
mastoid 191
meatal skin flap 18–21, 22
alternative 22–23
atretic ear surgery 149
canalplasty 17, 132, 133, 134–136
otitis externa obliterans 137
retroauricular 40
cholesteatoma removal 174–175
elevation 46
extended 226, 227
highly pneumatized mastoid 192
incus–stapedotomy 226–227
placement 47
poorly pneumatized mastoid 190
repositioning 31, 36
meato-canalplasty
external auricular canal cerumen impaction 327 retroauricular closed tympanoantrotomy 328 meatotamoid fistula 162, 163
meatoplasty 39–42
canalplasty 39, 42, 45
for exostosis 132
for otitis externa obliterans 136
cholesteatoma removal 196, 196–198, 202
definition 2, 8
exostosis surgery 132, 149 external ear canal volume 219, 301
HRCT 325–329
indications 45, 46
mastoido-epitympanectomy 196, 196–198, 202
open cavity 336, 336–337
open mastoido-epitympanectomy 217
otitis externa obliterans surgery 149 scar tissue removal 136
surgical steps 39–41
technique 47
ventilation 203
meatus
anterior incision 134
external 42
meningitis
cochlear implant 217
hearing loss 370
prevention 214
risk with CSF leaks with cochlear implant 347
mesotympanum
resurfacing 219
sheeting 105, 189
micro-bipolar forceps 236, 237 microscope, operating 378 microtympanoplasty scissors 19, 20 middle ear
aerated 300
atelectatic 311
defective mucosa 46, 186 exploration for cholesteatoma
removal 177
FTT introduction 81
Gelfilm sheeting 95
inspection for closed mastoidoepitympanectomy with tym-panoplasty 161
obliteration of cleft 345 pathological condition classification 293
sheeting 92, 105, 105–106, 186, 188
Spandrel introduction 71
ventilation 308
middle ear implants, active 215–216, 219–220
HRCT 348, 370
indications 219–220
results 217–218
transducer insertion 348 middle ear prostheses 374–375 see also named prostheses middle ear transducer (MET) device 215, 218
Mondini dysplasia 217
muscle relaxants 4, 7
musculoperiosteal flap
Index

N
neomalleus
lateralization 121
reconstruction 125
staged 276
titanium stapes prosthesis crimping 87 see also: titanium neomalleus neomalleus with stapedotomy (NMS) 75, 84, 84–87, 88
air–bone gap closure 121, 122
conductive hearing loss 121 fixed footplate, closed cavity 90 fixed stapes, open cavity 101 mobile footplate
open cavity 100–101
perforation 87
one-stage 88, 125
results 121, 122
space available 125
staged reconstruction for tympanosclerosis 276 stapedotomy phase 87
surgical steps 84–87
surgical technique 84
titanium neomalleus 90, 324 incorporation 86
tragal perichondrium harvesting 85
NIM-2 see electromyography (EMG), facial nerve monitoring O
occipital myosubcutaneous flap 204 mastoid obliteration 217
mobilization 193
open cavity reconstruction 206
posterior cavity obliteration 194, 200 retrofacial/retrolabyrinthine cell obliteration 195 tissue preservation 219
myringoplasty
ceruminal impaction 328
complications 43–44
definition 2, 8
endaural approach 8, 9, 11
flying after 7
hearing results 45
HRCT 311, 311–312
postoperative care 3–4
retroauricular approach 10, 11
surgical approaches 8, 9–11 temporal bone pneumatization 311, 311–312
transcanal approach 8, 9, 11
myringotomy
surgical steps 127
transcanal with ventilating tube 126–129

aus: Fisch u. a., Tympanoplasty, Mastoidectomy, and Stapes Surgery (ISBN 9783131377029)
© 2008 Georg Thieme Verlag KG
Index

closed cavity 79–88
and malleus, closed cavity 55–68
open cavity 95–101
mobile stapes 75
closed cavity 76–78
one-stage with mastoido-epitym-panectomy 332
open cavity 312
ossicular tissue condition 115–116 posterior canal wall reconstruction 107–108, 108–111 postoperative scans 315 preoperative scans 313, 313–314
results 115–118, 119–120, 121–122, 123, 124
sheeting of middle ear and eustachian tube 105, 105–106 Spandrel II 58–59, 59–65, 70–72
staged surgery 124, 369 staging 113, 113–114
stapes only 48, 74–101
closed cavity 75–90
open cavity 91–101
transmastoid drainage 112
see also Fisch titanium total pros-thesis (FTT); incus interposition; neomalleus with stape-dotomoy (NMS); ossicles, autograft; Spandrel II otic capsule
ossification 211
otitis externa chronic and meatoplasty 42
recurrent 132, 327–328
stenosans 326
otitis externa obliterans
canalplasty 136, 136–138
HRCT 326
meatoplasty 42, 149
otitis media, chronic 45 bone atrophy 309, 310
with central perforation 369
cholesteatoma 155
chronic draining ears 214
cochlear implant 347
HRCT 309, 310, 369
malleo-stapedotomy with mobile footplate 118 marginal perforation with chole-steatoma 332–342, 369
bone destruction 334–342
mastoido-epitympanectomy 152
ossiculoplasty preoperative scan 313 protympanum pneumatization 300 surgical procedure 368–369
tympanic membrane adhesive retractions 311
otitis media, necrotizing 153 otology superspecialization 292
otosclerosis
bilateral 364–367
cochlear 350–351, 352
diagnosis 349, 349–353
fenestral 349–350
focus removal 273
hearing levels 287
incus-stapedotomy 352–353
malleo-stapedotomy 284, 351–352, 367
malleus fixation 238, 282
obliterative 254, 254–256 drilling 255
irrigation 255
prosthesis length determination 255
stapes surgery results 278
surgical site 254
surgical procedure 368–369
stapes surgery results 278
recurrent external otitis 328
revision surgery 287, 357–361
stapedial 351–352, 358
stapes fixation 238, 272
otospongiosis 349–350
cochlear 350–351
otic capsule invasion 353
stapes footplate 359
oval window
anomalous facial nerve 261
cholesteatoma removal 167, 184–185
drainage 203
exposure in incus-stapedotomy 229 floating footplate extraction 257
HRCT 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307
cholesteatoma diagnosis 310
myringoplasty 311, 312
open cavity indication 310
ossiculoplasty 313, 314
lateral displacement risk 289 membrane displacement 223 palpation 268
mucosa scraping 87, 88
perforation
incus erosion 270
obliterative otosclerosis 255 revision stapes surgery 268 perichondrium covering 252
perilymph fistula 272
perilymph movement transmission 268
reobliteration 267, 285
skin grafting 96, 188
Spandrel 71
split-thickness skin graft 96
stapedectomy
prosthesis fixation/sealing 252
sealing 250
tragal perichondrium covering 70, 73, 90 oval window niche bone perforation 263
exposure 76, 78, 97
autograft ossicle 99
HRCT in titanium incus interposi-
tion 315, 316
identifiable with missing stapes 262, 263–264
matrix 342
narrow 257, 258–259, 351, 352, 357, 358
otospongiosis 350
perforation 263
closure 264
saucerization 289
scar formation minimization 113 stabilization 125
tragal cartilage 65
tympanosclerosis removal 275, 276 overlay 11–12, 12, 47 anchoring to malleus tip 36
complications 44
fixation 36
grafting 186, 188, 188–189
lateral displacement 44 posterior 12
total 12, 25
total perforation 35, 35–36

P
pars tensa defect 155 patient, intraoperative position 3
perforation
anteroinferior 27, 27
combined underlay graft 29–31
anterosuperior 27, 28
retroauricular graft 32–33 closure rate 45
draining 3, 7
dry 3, 7
exposure 14
intratympanic fixation 15
outfolding 14
overlay grafting 35, 35–36
Silastic sheeting presence 125
subtotal 28
grafting 34
temporary closure 2 total and overlay grafting 35, 35–36 traumatic 13
pericarotid cells, exenteration 348 perilymph lumbar drainage 263–264 movement transmission 268 outflow 263–264
perilymph fistula 179, 270, 337, 338, 339, 340
after stapes surgery 354–355
closure 272
following stapedectomy 271, 271–272 re-ossification 341, 342 repair 184
periosteal flap
retroauricular approach 8, 17
see also retroauricular periosteal flap periosteum, parietosquamous 219
elevation 208
petrosectomy, subtotal 211, 214, 345
cochlear implant 219, 345, 346–348
CSF leaks 217, 347
pericarotid cell exenteration 348 platinum–Teflon prosthesis see Teflon platinum piston pneumatization
HRCT 299, 300
mastoid 308, 314, 368–369
absent 344
cochlear implant 343
genital aural atresia 330, 331
HRCT 326
mastoido-epitympanicotomy 333–334 protopyramid 300
reduced and mastoido-epitympanectomy 310, 332 temporal bone 2, 159
extent 299, 300
HRCT evaluation 301, 305
myringoplasty 311, 311–312
tympanic cavity 330
 tympanomastoidectomy 310
 tympanoplasty 308
 tympano-zygomatic bones 300 pneumococcal vaccination, children with cochlear implant 213
 postoperative care 3–4
 premedication for anesthesia 4 preoperative care/treatment 2–3 protypanum
air in 308, 308–309
HRCT 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309
myringoplasty 311, 312
Titanium incus interposition 316
matrix invasion 342
pneumatization 300
ossiculoplasty 313
titanium incus interposition 315
membrane obliteration 343 occlusion by cochlear otosclerosis 353 perilymph movement transmission 268 reflex absence 268
sheeting 105
temporary access 129, 130–131 round window niche 104 exposure for cochlear implant 213 scala tympani 211
scala vestibuli cochlear implant electrode placement 211
cochleostomy 264, 265, 266
fenestration 264, 265
scar tissue, metatony 136 scutum, erosion 333, 334
semicircular canal
bone destruction 338
cholesteatoma matrix removal 337, 339, 340 fenestra 272, 273
fistula 165
labyrinthine 337, 338, 339
posterior 179
crater, erosion 335
sclerotic bone surround 334 superior and HRCT 301, 302, 303 Shea vein press 70
sheeting see Gelfilm; Silastic sheet Shrapnell’s membrane injury 155
integrity in stapedotomy 237
perforation 155
preservation 137
retraction 102
sigmoid sinus
exposure 337
position 301
skeletonization 172
Silastic sheet 124
anterior fascial underlay 187 closed mastoido-epitympanicotony with tympanoplasty 169 eustachian tube sheeting 92, 105, 105–106 first-stage tympanoplasty 186 foreign body reaction 125
FTT 319, 320
see also titanium stapes piston (TSP); titanium stapes prosthesis stapes arch cutting 167
intact 290
removal 113, 125, 184, 234–235, 254, 273
cochleostomy 265
malleo-stapedotomy 245
narrow oval window niche 257, 258
stapedectomy 249
tympanosclerosis 275
stapes footplate
distance to drum 63
to malleus 56
floating 256–257, 290
extraction 257
FTT
fixation 82
positioning 66, 98
incus-stapedotomy prosthesis 232 luxation 184
malleus handle distance 67
matrix 342
mobility 113
otospongiosis 359
perforation 248
malleo-stapedotomy 245
manual perforator use 250 of mobile 56, 87, 125
size 356
stapedotomy 231–232
tympanosclerosis 275
removal 249
Spandrel positioning 64 stapedotomy opening 289, 352, 353 total stapedectomy 70, 90 see also stapedotomy stapes head distance from malleus handle 51, 52 magnet attachment 215 notch for titanium incus 54
stapes surgery
complications 361, 361–367
defaith 289
HRCT 349–367
inner ear hearing loss 361, 361–367 limitations after 7
perilymph fistula 354–355
results 278, 279–280, 281–282, 283, 284–286, 287, 288
reversal of steps 289
revision 267–272
failure causes 285–286, 287
hearing loss 287
sensorineural deafness 284–285 skills 289
special applications 254–290
tympanosclerosis 274, 275–276
see also incus-stapedotomy;
malleo-stapedotomy; stapedectomy;
stapedotomy
stymostoid foramen 178
cochlear implant surgery 209 inferior tympanic ring lowering 182
mastoidectomy 179
skelatonization 172
stymostoid periosteum 178 sublabyrinthine cell exenteration 336 supralabyrinthine cell exenteration 168, 195, 335
radical 181, 201, 202
supralabyrinthine recess 103, 171
cholesteatoma elevation 180
exenteration/exteriorization 168, 195, 335
radical 181, 201, 202
obliteration 195
supratubal cells, exenteration 168, 335 supratubal recess 103, 171, 336
cholesteatoma elevation 180
exenteration 168, 335
pneumatic cell remnants 337 radical exenteration/exteriorization 181 surgical approaches 8, 9–11
selection 11
see also named approaches
stapedial otosclerosis 358
stapes surgery
complications 362
results 278, 279–280
temporal bone
anatomic configuration 301 cavity filling 346
cochlear implant HRCT 342, 343–348 drum reinforcement 110, 110–111 fractures 214
titanium incus interposition 315
HRCT 293–297
key levels 301, 303–304, 305, 306–307 malformations 214
cochlear implants 344–345
microanatomy 368
pathologic changes 301
pneumatization 2, 159
extent 299, 300
HRCT evaluation 301, 305
myringoplasty 311, 311–312
posterosuperior canal wall reconstruction 110, 110–111 sclerotic 308
mastoido-epitympanectomy
with partial obliteration 332
surgery 292–307
temporal fascia anterior underlay 96, 169
posterior overlay 93
fixation 33, 189
graft fixation 30 harvesting/preparation 30, 143 intratympanic support 32 overlay grafts 94, 144, 145, 188, 189
poorly pneumatized mastoid 191
posterior overlay 93, 169
underlay 34, 187
combined 187
temporal line 146
temporal squama
bone flap 110, 110–111
exposure 178
tensor tympani muscle, semicanal 186, 187, 266 tensor tympani tendon 104, 124
cutting 316
incus interposition 49–50
tensor–chorda fold see chorda–tensor fold
Index

pneumatization extent 310 tympanomeatal angle, anterior blunting 43 opening 135
 preservation 26
 skin preservation 204
tympanomeatal flap 16, 238 connective-tissue graft for repair 277–278 elevation 26, 29, 33
 FTT 97, 98
 neomalleus with stapedotomy 85, 87, 100
 fenestrated ears 272
 FTT 66, 97, 98, 125
 incisions 100, 239
 incus interposition 53
 incus-stapedotomy 226–227, 227–228
 malleo-stapedotomy 238, 239, 240, 282
 malleus fixation 271
 neomalleus with stapedotomy 84, 85, 86, 100
 ossiculoplasty 56
 perforation 277
 posterolateral 177
 repair of tears 290
 repositioning 31, 66, 236–237
 fenestrated ear 274
 round window temporary access 129, 130 Spandrel prosthesis 64, 65, 72, 125 titanium stapes prosthesis introduction 247 width 289
tympanometry 2
 tympanoplasty 368–369
 anterior underlay and posterior
 overlay grafting 186, 186–187
 closed mastoido-epitympanectomy with tympanoplasty 160, 168 definitions 2, 8
 first-stage 113, 114, 186, 189
 HRCT 308–310
 special applications 325–331
 imaging for 308–310
 open mastoido-epitympanectomy 186–189
 overlay grafting 188, 188–189
 pneumatization 308
 postoperative care 3–4
 second-stage 184
 special applications 126–149
 staged 188, 189, 204
 type III 116, 187, 204
 air–bone gap closure 122, 123
 with combined underlay grafting of tympanic membrane 91, 92, 92–94 with overlay grafting of tympanic membrane 94
 results 122, 123
 type IV 95–96, 184, 188, 188–189, 204 tympanoplasty microscissors 88, 97, 248, 250 tympanoplasty scissors 63
 tympanosclerosis
 bone atrophy 309
 stapes surgery 274, 275–276
 tympanosclerotic plaque 275
 removal 276
 tympanotomy, posterior 38, 103, 209 active middle ear device 215
 cholesteatoma 166–167
 closed mastoido-epitympanectomy with tympanoplasty 160
 tympano-zygomatic bones, pneumatized 300

U
 underlay 11–12, 47
 anterior 12, 16
 anterior bed 30
 anterior reperforation 43 combined anterior 25, 26–33 sites of support 27, 27–28
 surgical steps 29–33
 combined grafting 186
 complications 43
 subtotal perforation 34

V Valsalva maneuver 7
 ventilating T-tube, permanent 128, 129
 ventilating tubes
 introduction 128
 temporary 126, 127–128
 transportation 127
 on tympanic membrane 128 ventilation routes of attic 104 vertigo
 fistula test 2
 gold stapes prosthesis 361–362 oval window membrane palpation 268
 perilymph fistula 271
 prosthesis length 355
 revision stapedotomy 357
 vestibular function loss 368 vestibule
 air in 270
 blue area 261
 closure 289
 fistula 362
 incus-stapedotomy prosthesis advancement 233 prosthesis penetration 363
 sealing 288
 titanium stapes prosthesis contact 357
 vestibulotomy, anomalous facial nerve 260–261, 261 Vibrant Soundbridge (VSB) 215, 217–218 vibrational energy, titanium stapes piston 282

W
 water test for epitympanic patency 38, 47 wire-connective-tissue prosthesis 248, 249–250 connective tissue fixation 250 length checking 251 loop formation 251
 migration 267
 perilymph fistula 271–272
 removal 267, 271
 stapes surgery results 278, 279–280
 storage 251
 wire-bending die 251

aus: Fisch u. a., Tympanoplasty, Mastoidectomy, and Stapes Surgery (ISBN 9783131377029)
© 2008 Georg Thieme Verlag KG